

When it comes to money, are your kids hearing you?

Make sure they learn how to build a firm
financial future!

Join the NH Jump$tart Coalition at the 4th Annual Financial Fitness Fair

A new economy means new challenges, but also opportunities for teens. Help them prepare for their fast approaching futures by becoming more financially independent.

Timely topics for your high school junior or senior include:

- $ Spending, saving, and budgeting in today's turbulent financial age
- $ Establishing credit and a positive credit history
- $ Planning for the future – College and beyond

Keynote Speaker Josh Shipp will offer up advice with attitude

At Southern New Hampshire University

Saturday, January 17, 2009

8:30 AM – 2 PM (Registration begins at 8AM)

$10 per person, $25 family maximum

Register online by 1/10/09 at www.nhjumpstart.org

The Financial Fitness Fair is offered by the NH Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy, a nonprofit leader in personal financial education for kids, parents, and teachers. This informative event is made possible through the generous support of the NHHEAF Network, Consumer Credit Counseling Services of NH-VT, and Citizens Bank Foundation.