

Guest Speaker Biography
Sherrill St. Germain, MBA, CFP®
Founder and Principal,
New Means Financial Planning

About Sherrill St. Germain:

Sherrill St. Germain aims to be the financial planner she always wanted to hire – but couldn't find – back when she worked in high tech; one who:

- provides clients with the straight answers they need to make informed financial decisions;
- bases recommendations on thorough research and analysis, factoring in client priorities and preferences;
- is compensated in a clear, transparent manner.

Through nearly 25 years of experience in engineering, management, marketing, and professional services roles, and now as owner of her own financial planning practice, Ms. St. Germain has acquired the education, knowledge, and skills to deliver on this vision. She holds a BS in Electrical Engineering from Tufts University, an MBA from Clark University, and the Certified Financial Planner™ designation.

About New Means Financial Planning:

Through her Hollis, NH-based firm New Means Financial Planning, Ms. St. Germain has been offering fee-only financial planning and investment advice on an hourly, as-needed basis since 2003. New Means is the perfect choice for those looking for objective, professional input on questions about investing for retirement, college, or other goals, optimizing cash flow, ensuring a secure retirement, or changing careers.

About The Career Change Financial Planner blog:

Ms. St. Germain is the author of the blog www.TheCareerChangeFinancialPlanner.com, providing tips, tools, and resources to help career changers – voluntary or otherwise – make the most of their money before, during, and after the transition process.

June 2009 was designated “Pink Slip Lemonade” month, with daily blog entries offering financial planning tips for the recently laid-off and the employed-but-worried. Visit www.PinkSlipLemonade.com to see all related entries.
